

I do not want Indiana's telephone privacy law weakened by permitting the established business relationship exemption to interfere with my privacy at home. I am a customer of Wells Fargo, National City, Wachovia, and Bank of America. They can easily contact me by mail and email. They have no need to call me as often as they want about anything they want.